

Funds to Support Conference Paper Presentation

A limited amount of travel funds are available from the Sociology Department to support graduate students who are the sole or first author of papers being presented at professional scholarly conferences. (A copy of the current policy guidelines is posted on the Department's website.) To apply for these funds complete this form and send it via e-mail to James Burk, Chair of the Student Awards Committee (jsburk@tamu.edu).

Information Regarding Conference Participation
--

Student Name:
Student e-mail address:
Date of Presentation:
Type of Session (check):	<input type="checkbox"/> Regular Session (open submission) <input type="checkbox"/> Section Session (open submission) Note: No funding for roundtable or poster sessions
Conference Name or Sponsor:
Paper Authorship (check):	<input type="checkbox"/> Sole <input type="checkbox"/> First Author of (how many?): _____
Paper Title:

To receive funding, students must also complete a Travel and Leave Form (posited at the Department website) and provide receipts for their expenses. Allowable expenses include airfare, mileage, hotel, meals, conference registration, and association fees. See Mary Pendleton if you have any questions.